

I am a listener to KLOVE Christian radio. I believe this station and others like it provide a valid service to the community. They provide family friendly programming that uplifts instead of tears down. They providing counseling for those in need. I believe it would be a great loss to the community if KLOVE were to be replaced by a secular station. I would encourage the FCC to not allow KLOVE and stations like them to be pushed out by secular radio programming.